IGAF WORLDWIDE ANNOUNCES ALLIANCE PARTNERSHIP WITH ERNST & MORRIS

ATLANTA, GEORGIA— March 14, 2008 – IGAF Worldwide, one of the world’s oldest, largest, and most well respected associations of independent public accounting firms, is pleased to announce a new alliance partnership with Ernst & Morris Consulting Group, Inc., the USA’s oldest and most experienced provider of cost segregation studies.

As a benefit of membership, IGAF Worldwide offers its 150 member firms a number of services and discounted rates with alliance partner companies around the globe. The new partnership with Ernst & Morris will offer IGAF Worldwide member firms preferred access to Ernst & Morris’ cost segregation services.

Ernst & Morris cost segregation studies conform to the engineering approach, the highest standard set forth in the “IRS Audit Techniques Guide”. Ernst & Morris’ superior technical assistance to accounting firms and their clients includes important services such as an inspection of the facility and audit support and IRS defense for every study that is performed. Celebrating 15 years of cost segregation, Ernst & Morris has performed over 10,000 studies, resulting in the deferral of over $1 billion in taxes.

“In today’s marketplace, access to superior cost segregation services is a critical component of an accounting firm’s competitiveness,” said Kevin Mead, Executive Director of IGAF Worldwide. “This alliance partnership with Ernst & Morris is one of many ways that our association is taking an active role in helping member firms access the tools and resources they need to provide excellent client support. We are happy to provide this means of contributing to our members’ strength and growth through our alliance partner program.”

Detailed information about the alliance partnership, including preferred status and enrollment information, is accessible to IGAF Worldwide member firms on the IGAF Worldwide Private Web site at www.igafworldwide.org/private/services/alliance_programs.asp.
