ATLANTA, GEORGIA — February 6, 2008 — IGAF Worldwide, one of the oldest, largest, and most well respected associations of independent public accounting firms in the world, is pleased to announce the addition of Donna Munday, who will fill a new Office Administrator role on the IGAF Worldwide staff. As IGAF Worldwide grows and develops new services to meet the changing needs of its independent member firms, this new position will strengthen the association's resources and provide for an even higher level of customer service to member firms.

Munday comes to IGAF Worldwide with extensive background in the financial services industry, as well as trade association experience. Prior to that, she served as a licensed insurance agent for over a decade, working with international companies to manage complex customer service concerns on behalf of an extensive client base. Her experience includes property & casualty insurance, life & health insurance, and financial services.

At IGAF Worldwide, Munday will be charged with managing the Peer Review process for IGAF Worldwide North American member firms, monitoring global usage of IGAF Worldwide imagery and presentations for compliance with IGAF Worldwide membership standards, and other mission-critical administrative activities.
