IGAF WORLDWIDE ANNOUNCES ALLIANCE PARTNERSHIP WITH THE EXIT PLANNING INSTITUTE

ATLANTA, GA – July 9, 2010 – IGAF Worldwide, one of the world's strongest associations of independent public accounting firms, is pleased to announce its alliance partnership with The Exit Planning Institute, an association of professional business advisors providing exit planning services for business owners.

As a benefit of membership, IGAF Worldwide offers its 140 member firms a number of services and discounted rates with alliance partner companies around the globe. The new partnership with The Exit Planning Institute will give IGAF Worldwide member firms discounted access to the association's highly respected Certified Exit Planning Advisor (CEPA) program.

"The CEPA Curriculum is a tremendously comprehensive training program for professionals interested in exit planning, particularly accountants who deal with the owners of privately-held businesses," said Kevin Mead, Executive Director of IGAF Worldwide. "The CEPA course presents over 32.5 hours of CPE-qualified instruction on a topic that is of tremendous value and interest to many of the clients of our member firms. We are happy to provide our member firms with access to this excellent program, which is just one more way that IGAF Worldwide can contribute to our member firms' strength and growth."

Detailed information about the alliance partnership is accessible to IGAF Worldwide member firms on the IGAF Worldwide Private Web site at http://www.igafworldwide.org/private/services/alliance_programs.asp.
