CK CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS FINALIST FOR AWARD

West Midlands, United Kingdom (November 2009) – CK Chartered Accountants have achieved the shortlist of finalists for the 2009 Accountancy Age Best Medium-Sized Accounting Firm award.

This is a prestigious national award that acknowledges excellence and quality of service focusing on the delivery of value to clients. CK are thrilled to be one of the four finalist firms. Only once before entering this in 2002, everyone's fingers are crossed.

A CK team will be attending the Awards Gala dinner at Battersea Arena in London on November 18th when the results will be announced.
