

News Release

New Appointment – Ian Hill

Business advisers Cooper Parry have added to their team members with the appointment of Ian Hill as Senior Manager to their Private Clients team.

Ian comes from a 'big 4' accountancy firm in Birmingham where he worked for 20 years and advised individuals on a whole range of personal taxation issues.

Ian's role at Cooper Parry will be to advise and guide individuals through the complexities of modern taxation, covering Income Tax, Capital Gains Tax and inheritance Tax.

He says, "I'm excited to be joining Cooper Parry. The firm has a great future and I'm proud to be a part of it. Every client is different; there is no 'one size fits all.' My job will be to offer advice tailored to meet specific circumstances."

Ian continued, "Working together with my colleagues, we can help to maintain the prosperity of our clients now and in the future."

Stephen Jones, Partner at Cooper Parry said, "We are really pleased to welcome Ian to Cooper Parry to further boost our integrated offering of fee-based financial planning and personal tax advice, at a time when we are starting to see more positive signs in the economy. "
