HURST LIVERPOOL BECOMES JACKSON UK LLP

HURST (Liverpool) LLP will be changing its name to Jackson UK LLP from January 31, 2009.

Liverpool partner Claire Jackson has been leading on an ambitious plan for the Liverpool office following a mutual decision for both firms to concentrate on their respective local markets.

Explained HURST managing partner Tim Potter: "Liverpool is a very different business market to Greater Manchester. Both Claire and I believe her Liverpool clients will be better served by a locally based firm with a strong understanding of their needs. The two firms will continue to co-operate and we wish Claire and her team every success in the future."

The move does not affect HURST's ambitious growth plans.

Claire Jackson, managing partner said: "Jackson UK LLP will continue to provide a world-class service to our clients. Indeed, this change will enable us to develop even closer links with our clients. We are continuing to build a partnership in Liverpool that is totally focused on the business needs of our clients and contacts. It is an exciting time for the team and we are looking forward to being part of the continued renaissance of the Liverpool city region in the years to come."

End

Note to editor:

The two businesses have always been separate entities, with HURST being a limited liability partnership first established in 1982. Hurst & Company Accountants LLP ("HURST") licensed the HURST brand to the Liverpool office when that was set up in 1998.
