KOLB+CO. SC WINNER OF THE 2009 METROPARENT FAMILY FRIENDLY AWARD

BROOKFIELD – Kolb+Co. SC has been selected as one of the nine winners of the 2009 Metroparent Family Friendly Award. The winners will be recognized during an awards ceremony on September 18, 2009 at the Italian Community Center.

This award is given to companies who show a commitment to providing a family friendly atmosphere by allowing employees a balance between work and home life. It is open to all companies in Southeastern Wisconsin. To qualify as winners, companies were required to complete a company survey. In addition, 10 employees completed an extensive survey and testimonial.

Kolb+Co. has an open, collaborative and fun culture that adopted work/life balance as a core value. The firm offers flextime, part-time schedules at all levels, flexible hours, telecommuting, paid vacation and sick time. Kolb+Co. strongly believes a family friendly culture helps attract and retain great talent, which is the most valued asset.

Kolb+Co. provides integrated services and coordinated solutions to closely held businesses and their owners. The group, located in Brookfield, has more than 100 employees.
