KOLB+CO. SHAREHOLDERS AND DIRECTOR ELECTED

The National Association of Women Business Owners Greater Milwaukee (NAWBO GM) names two Kolb+Co. employees to 2009-2010 board of directors. Their names and board positions are as follows:

Sue Denzine, CPA, shareholder of Kolb+Co., will be the treasurer and historian. Valerie Johnson, CFP®, Director of Wealth Management for Kolb+Co. Financial Advisers, LLC will be the communications director.

NAWBO GM fosters the stability, growth and continued high standards of women entrepreneurs by providing education, networking and support.

Bart Adams, shareholder of Kolb+Co. was recently elected to the Waukesha County Action Network (WCAN) Board of Directors. WCAN facilitates discussion in the community of unique and broad public policy issues, develops solutions and drives action with the objective of improving the business climate and enhancing the quality of life in the county and region.

Adams has been a member of the firm and in public practice since 1975. He assists clients in areas such as business plan and budget development, company product line and facilities expansion, financing, profit planning, cash flow planning, and merger and acquisition analysis.

Kolb+Co. provides integrated services and coordinated solutions to closely held businesses and their owners. The group, located in Brookfield, has over 100 employees and seven affiliated advisory firms.
