

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
AUGUST 14, 2009

Media Contact:

Heidi Udell

914-319-7753

hudell@greatcirclecreative.com

PAUL R. GORDON JOINS RAICH ENDE MALTER & CO. LLP TO LEAD HIGH NET WORTH PRACTICE

NEW YORK, NY – Paul R. Gordon has joined Raich Ende Malter & Co LLP as leader of the firm's High Net Worth practice. He brings a distinguished track record of success as director of major wealth management companies and builder and manager of tax planning, fiduciary strategies, financial and estate planning, and estate administration practices.

Most recently, Paul served as Managing Director of Wealth Strategies, Citi Family Office, at Citigroup Global Wealth Management, where in addition to developing strategies for dealing with challenges faced by ultra high net worth clients, he was responsible for Philanthropic Advisory Services, Family Wealth Advisory Services, and Art Advisory Services. Prior to his tenure at Citigroup, Paul served first as Managing Director of the US Trust National Wealth Consulting Division, then as head of the Bank of New York's Wealth Advisory Division. As partner at Touche Ross, Paul served as Co-National Director of Financial Planning, where he coauthored The Touche Ross Guide to Personal Financial Management, published by Prentice-Hall.

Paul holds a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Syracuse University, a JD from Georgetown University Law Center, and an LLM in tax law from New York University School of Law. He is a CPA in Connecticut, and is admitted to the New York State Bar.

Raich Ende Malter & Co LLP is a mid-sized regional CPA firm based in New York City and East Meadow, NY. In September 2008, Raich Ende Malter was named one of the Top 25 Accounting Firms in the New York Area by Crain's New York Business.