

BCG & Company Wins NorthCoast 99 Award for 6th Consecutive Year Recognized as one of Northeast Ohio's best places to work for top talent

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Northeast Ohio – (September 17, 2010) BCG & Company is proud to be recognized by the ERC (Employee Resource Council) as one of Northeast Ohio's best places to work! This is the sixth year in a row the organization has received the award.

"Our people are our most valuable asset," states Dave Brockman, Managing Director. "We continuously strive to provide the most comprehensive benefits and growth opportunities in order to attract and retain top talent. With constant staff feedback and regular reviews, we are able to provide a variety of employee perks and continue to place a high importance on life/work balance. Having won this award year after year our efforts to ceaselessly improve our work environment are clearly reasserted. We are very proud to have obtained this recognition yet again."

About BCG & Company

Akron-based BCG & Company is a full service, regional certified public accounting and business consulting firm that provides comprehensive financial and tax services, as well as management and technology consulting. A NorthCoast 99 company, BCG & Company is the largest Akron-based accounting firm, with two affiliates and multi-state operations.