

News Release

Daniel Haigh Appointment

Regional business advisers Cooper Parry have appointed Daniel Haigh as Manager within their Business Recovery and Insolvency Services team.

Daniel worked previously for Hazlewoods LLP in Gloucestershire where he passed his Chartered Accountancy and Insolvency Exams (JIEB) and then went on to BRI UK Limited in Coventry.

“The move allowed me to focus on managing a team and developing their understanding of how best to maximise value for creditors and complete insolvency processes as efficiently as possible.”

Daniel’s priority at Cooper Parry will be to work with directors to address challenging businesses issues and implement practical solutions and action plans.

He said about his appointment, “I am pleased to join Cooper Parry’s Business Recovery and Insolvency team, they have a great reputation in the marketplace for delivering no nonsense solutions to business owners and their stakeholders and are a great bunch of people to work with.”

He continued, “My two main challenges will be maintaining the quality of work Cooper Parry have become known for and getting to meet with directors before they reach a point where various options that would have been available to them have gone.”

Alison Timperley, Director of Business Recovery and Insolvency said, “We are delighted that Daniel has joined us. He will bring support and experience to the team and help us meet the ever increasing demands from our clients to help them in these challenging times.”
