FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Gary A. Grossman, CPA, CFP Earns Personal Financial Counselor Designation with MHN Government Services

Syracuse, NY - March 3, 2010 – Gary A. Grossman, CPA, CFP and Partner at Green & Seifter, Certified Public Accountants, PLLC has contracted with MHN Government Services (MHNGS) to provide financial management services to military families and service members. Grossman earned the Personal Financial Counselor designation through the Personal Financial Counselor Program, which was created in 2007. The Department of Defense initiated the Financial Readiness Campaign, MHNGS, to help military personnel effectively deal with financial issues. The positive and proactive approach to personal finances encourages service members and families to come forward when they experience financial challenges and obtain assistance to improve their financial situation. As a Personal Financial Counselor, Gary Grossman brings expertise in financial management.

Grossman practices in the areas of accounting and tax and financial planning for businesses and individuals. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Everson Museum of Art, Syracuse Symphony Orchestra, Syracuse Jewish Childrens' Foundation and Manlius Pebble Hill School. Grossman holds a Masters degree from Syracuse University and a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Ohio State University.
