

Media information

News from HURST Accountants
April 8, 2010

U.S. PRO COMES TO MANCHESTER

North West companies and professionals have the chance to obtain invaluable advice from a heavy-hitting US business advisor who is visiting the region later this month.

HURST Accountants have sponsored the visit by Henry Paula who is a principal at the major US accountants and business advisors Reznick Group, which is affiliated to HURST via its international association.

Henry shall be meeting key business people and professionals from the region and is key note speaker at a Pro Manchester event where he will be providing an insight into how US professionals survived and in some cases prospered during the recession.

Said Simon Brownbill, HURST's director of practice development: "We have very close links with Reznick Group and we are delighted to be hosting such a high profile international guest. The recession has changed the business landscape in the US, and UK companies and professionals with interests there need to understand these changes.

"The disruption in the US market can actually create opportunities for those UK companies that are more nimble and can see the big picture, and this is where Henry Paula can provide invaluable advice and help."

HURST has arranged his visit through IGAF Worldwide, the global association of independent accountancy firms. As a lead member of IGAF, HURST can offer local audit, tax and other business support in virtually every country including the US to all its clients which have international business needs.

Henry- has significant experience working with US and foreign multinationals in mergers and acquisitions, complex capital structures, and multinational tax planning. Prior to joining Reznick Group, he was a partner with PricewaterhouseCoopers. He also served three years as a managing director in the corporate finance group for a major U.S. bank's capital markets operation, and as the US desk tax partner in Paris for another Big 4 firm.

Reznick Group was founded in 1977 and is headquartered out of Bethesda, Maryland. Ranked among the top 20 accounting firms in the United States, they provide accounting, tax and business advisory services to clients across the globe.

Henry will be available at HURST's offices in Stockport and Manchester on Wednesday and Thursday, April 28 and 29. There are limited opportunities to meet Henry. To arrange a meeting contact Simon Brownbill, director of practice development at HURST Accountants, 0161 4292520; simon.brownbill@hurst.co.uk.

End

Issued on behalf of HURST Accountants by:
Ainsworth Public Relations
0161 427 3861
guy@ainsworth-pr.co.uk
www.ainsworth-pr.co.uk

HURST Accountants
Stockport and Liverpool
www.hurst.co.uk