Cleveland Nonprofit Unanimously Appoints New Board Member

Michael R. Muniak Appointed to Golden Age Centers' Board of Directors

CLEVELAND, OHIO – April 7, 2010 – Cleveland-based accounting and consulting firm Howard, Wershbale & Co. (HWCO), announced today that Michael R. Muniak, CPA, has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Golden Age Centers through a unanimous vote.

Golden Age Centers (GAC), a nonprofit organization established in the Greater Cleveland area in 1954, is committed to helping seniors by redefining “The Art of Aging.” GAC helps to dramatically improve the quality of life for thousands of frail elders in the community by providing help with appointments, counseling, government and insurance forms, wellness and other activities. GAC’s mission is to provide outstanding programs and supportive services that enhance the quality of life and independence of older persons. For more information about GAC, visit www.goldenagecenters.org.

“I am honored to be a part of an organization that has given so much to the seniors of our community. I look forward to contributing my knowledge and expertise to Golden Age Centers,” said Muniak.

Muniak has over 15 years experience as auditor, accountant, and business and tax consultant to nonprofit organizations and closely-held businesses with a primary focus on financial statement audit and reviews. Mike also assists with keeping the firm’s clients informed on industry changes and challenges.
