

MARK BAILEY & COMPANY REGISTERS WITH THE CANADIAN PUBLIC ACCOUNTABILITY BOARD

Release Date: October 7, 2009

Contact: Michelle Turri

Mark Bailey & Company was recently registered by the Canadian Public Accountability Board (CPAB). The CPAB oversees auditors of Canadian reporting companies and promotes high quality, independent auditing in order to contribute to public confidence in the integrity of financial reporting of reporting issuers in Canada. "As the only Reno based accounting firm credentialed to provide audit services to public companies in the United States, we recently registered with the CPAB to better serve our multinational clients particularly those involved in the extractive minerals industries." said Mark Bailey, managing partner.

Mark Bailey and Company is one of three public accounting firms registered with the CPAB firms in the state of Nevada. The firm focuses on providing small to midsized private and public companies with comprehensive audit, tax and business management services. About Mark Bailey & Company, Ltd. Mark Bailey & Co., CPAs is a local public accounting firm in Reno, Nevada. Mark Bailey & Co.'s clients include privately held and publicly-traded businesses, and individuals.

The firm is registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board, Canadian Public Accountability Board and the AICPA and regional affiliations of CPA firms.